

A Study of Pollinators

Study Question: Do pollinators have a flower color preference?

Data Collection: Collect your study chart, a pencil and a clipboard. Spend time outside. When you see a pollinator on a flower, put a tally mark under the proper flower color column and the corresponding pollinator row. The study may take a few visits outdoors to draw any conclusions.

| Bee or Wasp   |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|
| Butterfly    |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| Beetle      |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| Hummingbird |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| Fly         |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |

Dragonfly Nature Programs

Nature Studies Designed For Young People

www.dragonflynature.com